

Beautiful Brittany

A long, rugged coastline, vast bays of glorious beaches and a secretive, almost mystical interior is the lasting impression of Brittany.

This most westward region of France, where the Bretons speak their ancient language and carry on age-old traditions, always seems a little out of step with mainstream France. But the many attractions welcome visitors in their thousands year after year.

Places to go

QUIMPER

Picturesque riverside town with cobbled streets and half-timbered houses.

Visit the Festival de Cornouaille, Quimper from 19-27 July 2008 which brings the medieval heart of the town alive with traditional entertainment and colourful street parades.

RIVER ODET

Cruise from Benodet along what is often regarded as France's most beautiful river.

POINTE DU RAZ

Dramatic headland near Quimper, most westerly point in mainland France.

LOCRONAN

Beautiful Renaissance buildings around a central village square.

DINAN

Wonderfully preserved medieval town.

GOLFE DE MORBIHAN

A large inland sea dotted with islands, best explored by boat from Vannes.

CARNAC

Famous prehistoric standing stones close to the popular seaside resort.

ROSCOFF

Pretty seaside resort with the offshore island of Batz worth a visit.

FOUGÈRES

Impressive fortresses on the medieval border of France and Brittany.

ST MALO

Walled citadel looking across pretty bay.

PINK GRANITE COAST

Strangely eroded rocks scattered along the shore around Perros Guirec.

LA BAULE

Smart seaside resort and yachting marina with a large sweep of sandy beach and tree lined avenues.

CONCARNEAU

Large fishing port with lovely old quarter enclosed by granite ramparts.

CROZON PENINSULAR

One of the most impressive stretches of Breton coastline, with rocky cliffs and marvelous sandy beaches.

Family Fun

AMORIPARK, BÈGARD

Indoor aquatic centre plus outdoor activities.

OCÉANOPOLIS, BREST

Massive marine aquarium with an amazing array of underwater life!

ARCHÈOSCOPE, CARNAC

Multimedia entertainment describing the mystery of the amazing standing stones.

AQUARIUM, ST MALO

With sharks and 360 degree panoramic tank.

Tasty Breton treats

SEAFOOD

Superb selection widely available especially lobster, mussels, oysters and langoustines all fresh from the days catch.

CREPES & GALETTES

Excellent traditional snack served plain or with either a savoury or sweet filling.

CIDER

Traditional drink often sipped from a small 'boule' or bowl!

Rent villas France
Holiday Rental Specialist

Rent-Villas-France offers a wide range of villas with private pools, gites and apartments in the prettiest areas of France. Our portfolio of properties is carefully selected and regularly inspected to ensure the highest quality standards. With offices both in the UK and in France, a quality website and bi-lingual staff who know France for having lived there, rest assured that not only do we offer rentals but we offer a quality service!

Telephone : 0870 243 2330
www.rent-villas-france.com
enquiries@rent-villas-france.com

Sales Villas France

Are you considering buying or selling a property in France, do you own a property in France and wish to rent it or even knows somebody who does? We can advise and assist you in all aspects of selling and renting a property. Have a look at a selection of our properties for sale at : www.sales-villas-france.com

If you don't find the property of your dreams, don't worry, we have access to a database of over 250,000 properties in France so just let us know what you are looking for!

Telephone : 01937 830 712
www.sales-villas-france.com
christophe@rentvillafrance.com

